
One fixed training/validation partition. All fits retained. Term removal changes the saved logit without refitting; correlated predictors remain.

These are conditional sensitivity results, not independent populations, a leakage p-value, or detection performance at a selected threshold.